Duty Free Shops at International Airports

1890. SHRI CHATURANAN MISHRA: Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that ITDC is running Duty Free shops at most of the International Airports and have recently been allotted additional and sufficient space by the International Airport Authority of India at different airports of the country;

(b) if so, what are the details thereof for the last two years and in which manner the same space have been utilised to boost the earnings in foreign exchange of the corporation, so far;

(c) whether ITDC has sufficient stocks of imported goods for sale through the above-said outlets at different international airports; if not, the reasons therefor; and

(d) whether the DFT Division is fully equipped to handle the requirements of merchandise, if not, the reasons therefor and action taken to that effect so far?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM (SHRI MADHAVRAO SCINDIA): (a) and (b) ITDC is in the business of duty free shopping at the arrival and departure halls of International Airports at Delhi, Bombay, Calcutta, Madras and Trivandrum. IAAI has allotted additional spaces during May/June, 1992 at IGI Airport, New Delhi and Sahar International Airport Bombay. The additional spaces allotted to ITDC are under renovation to set up shopping areas of international standard and this is expected to boost sales from these shops.

(c) Yes, Sir.
